we design

We also have a home, and like you, we get excited when choosing every product. Some of us are melancholic, some of us are excited, sometimes cheerful, sometimes sad. When we design, you are actually designing. We are just like you. Our design team works every day to create more colorful patterns. We design more because there is a design for everyone. Sometimes you may have difficulty in choosing, but it should be remembered that every home wants designs that will tell its story. A Mouds curtain doesn't just stand by the window. We choose patterns that will color the light of the sun and moon and reflect it to your soul. Just a cushion cover on the couch can help you start the day better. This is hidden in the mystery of design. In Mouds designs...

The prints made at Mouds are carefully selected according to the home textile we choose, the fabric to be used, and the location. This is important considering where each product is used. Curtains get sunlight, cushion covers absorb your sweat, and tablecloths come into contact with your food. For us, printing is not just printing; all its details matter.

professional printing

this your factory

Home textiles are challenging but enjoyable work. Your brand is important to you. We know that you have grown it and you have goals. You can confidently put your brand on all the products made here. In the quantities you want and as many as you want. Just tell us your standards. Let us be your solution partner with our experience. All the products made here are sold worldwide. The feeling of winning together is priceless. You focus on marketing, we'll focus on production. You grow your brand, and we'll grow our production technology.

hundreds of different patterns

Innovation is good; every new pattern will leave a different memory for you. With our thousands of color and pattern options and flexible print quantities, you can create as many different combinations as you want.
